

The English Language
Department at Penza
State University

Transilvania University of Brasov

FACULTY OF LETTERS

International Student Research Webinar in Language and Culture 20 January 2020, 15.00

The event will afford students from the Penza State University and from Transilvania University of Braşov the opportunity to exchange ideas about their research projects.

Co-organisers:

Tatiana Dubrovskaya, Dr.hab., Head of the English Language Department at Penza State University, Penza Russia

Raluca Sinu, PhD, Senior Lecturer, Department of Theoretical and Applied Linguistics, Transilvania University of Braşov, Braşov, Romania

Programme

Cristina Neculoiu (2nd year, master student, Braşov)

Power Relations in Cross-Cultural Communication

Elmira Yuskaeva (3rd year, master student, Penza)

The Discursive Construction of the Common Past in Brexit Discourse

Réka-Orsolya Székely (2nd year, master student, Braşov)

Breaking the Barriers: Social Media in Language Learning and Practice - A Case Study

Natalya Vidineeva (3rd year, PhD student, Penza)

Implicit Meanings in Weblog Entries: Linguistic Actualisations

Ştefan-Andrei Popa (2nd year, master student, Braşov)

Divorcing the Truth: The Role of Language in Propaganda